

Ethics & Global Compliance – A New World and New Challenges

David Kuckelman is currently the Senior Vice President & General Counsel of Ethics and Compliance for the Smiths Group. He has worked for several organizations in ranging from Government to private practice to public firms. His focus for this month's meeting will deal with ethics and global compliance and new challenges organization face.

David has provided leadership and oversight for all areas of internal and external legal issues regarding U.S. Operations. His responsibility has included management of the Law Directorate, the Export and Security Directorate and the Directorate for Compliance and Business Ethics. David has worked for Honeywell International Inc. as an Associate General Counsel, Government Compliance and before that Vice President and General Counsel for their Aerospace Electronic Systems Strategic Business unit.

David spent 12 years in private practice with Seyfarth, Shaw, Fairweather and Geraldson as a partner in charge of the firm's West Coast International & Government Contracts group. Before entering the private sector, David spent 11 years in the United States Air Force and the U.S. Department of Defense serving in a variety of roles, including a special assignment as Attorney Advisor for international industrial cooperation in the office of Defense General Counsel.

David has degrees in Chemical Engineering (BS) and Political Science (BA), as well as a Juris Doctor (law degree) and a Master of Laws (LLM).

www.smiths.com

240.686.2354

David.Kuckelman@smiths.com