

Stephen J. Yuter, CPCM, CFCM, PMP

Stephen J. Yuter is currently a Senior Contracting Officer with the U.S. Department of Agriculture, HQ IT Procurement Operations. Prior to joining USDA, he was a Contracting Officer with the Department of Homeland Security/Immigration and Customs Enforcement, and has over 10 years of experience in federal acquisition and contract management. Mr. Yuter was responsible for managing DHS/ICE's largest contract, a $700M IT engineering services program. In each of his roles, he has developed, coordinated, negotiated, managed, and advised on large, complex acquisitions, and has served as source selection authority on nearly $2 billion in contracts during his career.

Mr. Yuter is a graduate of the Emerging Leaders Program and a recipient of three DHS Special Achievement Awards for exemplary procurement leadership and excellence in acquisition strategy. As an active member of NCMA and current Vice-President of the Potomac Chapter, he has been listed in the annual Experts Directory and is the recipient of the 2011 Outstanding Academic Achievement Award. He has previously presented on EVM techniques, and served as a consultant for the development of several government price/cost analysis courses and contract execution guides.

Mr. Yuter holds a B.S. in Marketing and Business Administration from Florida Atlantic University, a Master's Certificate in Government Contracting from the George Washington University School of Business, and an M.S. in Management from the Florida Institute of Technology. He currently holds numerous professional certifications including the CPCM, CFCM, PMP, Project+, CTPE, and SPSM. In addition, Mr. Yuter is FAC-C Level III certified in Contracting and Level II certified in Program Management.

Contact Information:

202.720.2649 | stephen.yuter@dm.usda.gov